

Data Collection and Management Plan (a fragment) -- The ZEFRA Game and US Plans for the South-West Pacific 2020

Sponsor's Objective: Determine the potential roles for SAPCOM and identify where there may be friction points for US and UN Coalition should Zefra become a hot spot yet again

Issue No	Issue	EEA No	Essential Element of Analysis	MOM No	Measure of Merit	Event/Inject No	Event/Inject	MMT Support	Move Number
9	What sorts of measures will China take to counter-act or to frustrate US and Coalition objectives?	9.1	Do Chinese activities restrict US freedom of action?	9.1.1	How serious were Chinese actions and how severely were US and coalition actions impacted? List and general assessment.		Chinese players to take actions contrary to US objectives	Scenario	After Coalition moves into Zefra
		9.2	Are US lives in jeopardy due to Chinese action?	9.2.1	How many lives were at stake, and were their injuries or casualties?		Chinese forces should take some aggressive action	Facilitator inject or game play by Chinese side
10	Are the large number of PMC (private military company) employees in the area a significant force, for good or ill?	10.1	Do PMC employees provide some advantages to the Coalition or to the US? For example, providing intell, providing a "back channel" for communications/negotiations.	10.1.1	List incidents where PMC employees were of assistance. And where they were obstructive.		Draw PMC employees (of TOKEN Corp) into activities of the US or of the coalition.	Facilitator inject or game play by TOKEN player	Introduce several events as appropriate at different stages
		10.2	Do PMC employees cause impediments for the Coalition or US forces? For example, do they compromise OPSEC?	10.2.1	List incidents where PMC employees were an impediment.		Same as above	Facilitator inject
11	Is media coverage of coalition and US operations generally favorable?	11.1	What media stories came out and did they adversely affect public opinion?	11.1.1	List media stories and assess their impact		Media should aggressively follow stories to assess how stories will play with the public	Scenario	Introduce several events as appropriate at different stages

Data Collection and Management Plan (a fragment) -- The ZEFRA Game and US Plans for the South-West Pacific 2020

Sponsor's Objective: Determine the potential roles for SAPCOM and identify where there may be friction points for US and UN Coalition should Zefra become a hot spot yet again

Issue No	Issue	EEA No	Essential Element of Analysis	MOM No	Measure of Merit	Event/Inject No	Event/Inject	MMT Support	Move Number
12	Are the roles of NGOs providing medical and humanitarian aid and those of Coalition and US military forces compatible or not?	12.1	Were actions by NGOs compatible with US and Coalition objectives? If not, were there consequences?	12.1.1	Identify conflicts with NGOs		Initiate incidents that may cause dilemmas for NGOs or for the military.	Facilitator inject	Introduce several events as appropriate at different stages
...	...	...	...	...	...	...	...	...	...
...	...	...	...	...	...	...	...	...	...
...	...	...	...	...	...	...	...	...	...
21	Can coalition ground forces deal with minor skirmishes with insurgents and armed factions in Zefra	21.1	What results are expected from firefights between Coalition (CJTF-Z) ground forces and insurgents or armed factions (company level)?	21.1.1	Casual counts (by classification if necessary)		Ambush of coalition patrols	MANA model of combat
		12.2	Can coalition deal with expected casualty level: CASEVAC and medical resources?	12.2.1	Management of medical resources to treat casualties from combat		Casualties from firefight get treatment at Coalition medical facilities	Extend model of medical treatment
22	Does the Coalition have the logistics/transportation resources for re-supply during operations?	22.1	Can Coalition sealift resources meet re-supply requirements (beans, bullets, and fuel)?	22.1.1	Table/graph of supplies delivered over time			Extend sealift model

Data Collection and Management Plan (a fragment) -- The ZEFRA Game and US Plans for the South-West Pacific 2020

Sponsor's Objective: Determine the potential roles for SAPCOM and identify where there may be friction points for US and UN Coalition should Zefra become a hot spot yet again

Issue No	Issue	EEA No	Essential Element of Analysis	MOM No	Measure of Merit	Event/Inject No	Event/Inject	MMT Support	Move Number
		22.2	Can Coalition ground transportation resources meet re-supply requirements (beans, bullets, and fuel)?	22.2.1	Table/graph of supplies delivered over time			Extend ground transportation model
		22.3	Can Coalition airlift resources meet re-supply requirements (beans, bullets, and fuel)?	22.3.1	Table/graph of supplies delivered over time			Extend airlift model
23	How will US and Coalition react to threat of WMD, e.g., "dirty nukes"?	23.1	When there was a WMD threat, what were the US and Coalition reactions?	23.1.1	List of incidents with WMD, scale of impact		Introduce WMD activity, e.g., "dirty nuke".	Facilitator inject or game play by ZA/ "Rat Works"	After Coalition moves into Zefra
24	What is the appropriate role of the media?	24.1	How did the media assist SAPCOM in its mission?	24.1.1	List incidents, with advice on how to exploit the media more		Allow media play in events that are major stories	Facilitator inject or player decisions	Potentially in any move
		24.2	How did the media hinder SAPCOM in its mission?	24.2.1	List incidents, with advice on avoiding such incidents in real life		Allow media play in events that are major stories	Facilitator inject or player decisions	Potentially in any move